

TEM TESTIMONY RESERVOIR

September, 2026

Introduction

We began September with prayers.

We journeyed through the month in faith.

And now, we have a record of God's faithfulness.

Every testimony reminds us that God hears.

Every answered prayer reminds us that God is faithful.

Every story gives us another reason to give thanks.

1. ROBERTS TREASURE

- This is a season of shocking things indeed. I paid 5k for my design app subscription, as usual every month. But this time, I was deducted only 1k instead of 5k, and the bill of 5k was written there. Strange workings Kaili!!!!

2. PASTOR PRAISE

A brand new client reached out today.

3. GOD'S WILL JEREMIAH

- Father Paul 😊. Happy New Month to you Apostle Sir...Finally the school I've long waited for Sir.... finally replied after 1 week and some days as we were praying I saw a notification on indeed and after few minutes I was prompted to go check spam Sir ❤️. Indeed God is good Sir.....
- Pastor Paul, Testimonies full everywhere ooo!!! One month transportation sponsorship for the job that I've been expecting as just dropped Sir!

4. MARY BABATUNDE

- Good evening apostle sir 🙌

Glory to God 🙌🙌🙌

For several months, I was in search of a new apartment. My roommate informed me that her cousin had gained admission to LASU and would be moving in, so because it was a single room, I needed to relocate. I took it in good faith and began searching.

Along the way, a friend from my diploma school who also gained admission to LASU was looking for accommodation too, so we agreed to team up. But house hunting in a student area is tough. Houses are scarce, agent fees so high, and getting a place directly from a landlord is nearly impossible. At one point, we found a room self-contained for 900k. It was too expensive, so we had to let it go.

Despite the stress, I held onto faith and put the situation entirely in God's hands.

The very next week, God opened a door. My friend's aunty connected us with someone near campus. I went to inspect the apartment, a clean room self-contained and the rent was just 400k. It was direct from the landlord. My friend's mom stepped in to pay 300k upfront to secure it, asking me to cover just the remaining 100k balance.

I paid the first 50k when a job came through, but I was still trusting God for the 50k balance and had no idea where it would come from.

Today, while praying during my fast, I laid the financial burden completely before God. Later in this afternoon, around 4pm as I sat down to break my fast and began eating, an alert dropped into my phone. Someone whom I had previously mentioned my housing search to sent me exactly 50k. I thought if she even remembered me at all at the end of the month, maybe she'd send 15k or 20k. But God touched her heart to cover the entire remaining balance right at the very moment I was breaking my fast.

Truly, my God is good 🙌🙌🙌🙌

Thank you apostle for always bringing us the word of the now sir

I'm grateful sir 🙏 for constant prayers and prophecies of my life

Thank you sir

- Another powerful testimony sir this afternoon while I was praying before I started praying my neighbour's daughter came to my room and slept off so i started praying afterward I put my ear piece on to avoid distraction few minutes later I heard a loud voice speaking in tongues and praying and shaking I removed my ear piece its was my neighbour's daughter praying seriously in tongues so I continue praying after I was done she was still praying I was shocked because I remembered a particular day where I overheard her saying to some few person that she doesn't believe in speaking in tongues and probably those that speak it maybe they were been taught I was surprised to ear and see her under the power of the holy spirit so after she was calm I asked her that does she speak in tongues before now she said not really she said not like this that she as never experienced what she felt today so I prayed for her and she said she will fellow me to church on Sunday

I was so happy to hear her say that she would fellow me to church this Sunday

I'm grateful to God for her encounter with the holy spirit.

5.BLESSING ADESUYI

Good morning, Apostle.

Glory to God! 🙌

My finances are increasing already! 🙌

As of this morning, I woke up as early as 5:20 to take my bath, and before I did, I checked my notifications. I saw my pay for the month, and it was exactly the amount the man had agreed to be paying me. So, I simply put my phone aside and went to take my bath.

Apostle, when it was past 8 and I wanted to withdraw money for transport, I checked my account and realized that the amount in my account was double my salary!

At first, I thought it was a mistake and assumed he must have sent the money twice. So, I had to get to work and confirm, only to realize that it was actually the correct amount that had been paid to me. 🙌

And as if that wasn't enough, I had an ushering job on Saturday, and the head usher messaged me asking for my account number, which was quite unusual. She explained that the event planner herself had thought about the fact that we arrived very early for the event and decided to pay for our breakfast in addition to our initial payment.

Apostle, this has never happened before, and it is happening today!

Gloryyyy to God! 🙌🙌🙌

It hasn't even been 12 hours, and I'm already receiving my testimony. I'm truly anticipating what God has in store for me throughout this month. I know this is just the beginning! 🙏

Thank you so much, sir, for your guidance, prayers, and support. I truly appreciate you.

God bless you abundantly, sir. ❤️🙏

So on getting to the office. My colleague told me that it was written in the description that it was a bonus from a project which is still ongoing. The first pay description was August allowee. While the second pay description was bonus from pristine (project name). Not all of us. Just me and my colleague that worked on the project.
